

From Posterior to Prediction

Implications of model depend upon entire posterior

Must average any inference over entire posterior

This usually requires integral calculus

OR we can just take samples from the posterior

