Why Normal?

Two arguments

(1) Generative: Summed fluctuations tend towards normal distribution

(2) Inferential: For estimating mean and variance, normal distribution is least informative distribution (maxent)

Variable does not have to be normally distributed for normal model to be useful. It's a machine for estimating mean/variance.